

CLIENT INFORMATION FORM
Individual

- If the client is a Corporation, Partnership or other entity, please use the Entity Form. Before you make a purchase, you must complete all sections of this form, sign it and send it to Development Company for Israel (International) Ltd. ("DCI") at the address set out at the bottom of this form and have signed and returned a copy our Terms of Business (November 2017 version).
 - We are required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each of our clients. We may verify this information through public sources. We will require to see your passport or photocard driving license (both parts, if applicable) and an original utility bill or bank statement (not an internet/email print-out) dated within the last three months evidencing your address. If you are not able to visit DCI's offices to provide such documents, we will require you to supply with this form:
 - a certified copy of your passport or photocard driving license (both parts, if applicable) that confirms that your picture in the relevant document is a true likeness; and
 - a certified copy of an original utility bill or bank statement (not an internet/email print-out) dated within the last three months evidencing your residential address.
- The copies should be certified by a regulated professional person, such as a solicitor or an accountant. It is important that the person certifying the document provides their contact details. Please do not send your passport, driving license, utility bill or bank statement in the post – only a certified copy.
- In order to prevent or detect fraud or money laundering, DCI will check and share the information in this application or at any stage, with fraud prevention agencies including consulting information held by such agencies from the electoral register for the purpose of verifying your identity. A record of this check may be retained and used to help other affiliated companies to verify your identity.
 - All personal data provided in this form and relating to you may also be used as agreed in the Terms of Business.
 - Please provide information for the fields marked with an asterisk (*). Failure to provide such information is likely to result in any subscription application being unsuccessful.
 - If you have any questions please call 020 3936 2712 during normal office hours Monday - Friday.
